

Gary Chapman, nationally known author (The Five Love Languages) and presenter, is coming to Jackson County, Michigan!

Visit MarriageMattersJackson.com for tickets or call (517) 796-5116 for more information.

Marriage Matters Jackson, a non-profit marriage education organization, is hosting Dr. Gary Chapman live! Chapman is in high demand everywhere in the country and his events receive rave reviews. His current tour features an all-day workshop: The Marriage You've Always Wanted. The event takes place Sat., Nov. 5, 9 a.m.-3:30 p.m. at Spring Arbor Free Methodist Church (about 9 miles west of Jackson).

"We are so excited to welcome Dr. Chapman to our community," notes Shelby Raines, managing director of Marriage Matters Jackson. "This is a rare and wonderful opportunity for everyone in southern Michigan."

Chapman comes from a place of faith, but his information is applicable to couples from all types of backgrounds. Best of all, it is not a dry, formal marriage presentation – it's a time of fun and discovery. This event is perfect for all couples -- whether you're a dating couple or you've been married for 50 years this day is for you. Don't miss this chance!

Advanced tickets to the event are $50 per person and include lunch. Visit MarriageMattersJackson.com for tickets or call (517) 796-5116 for more information.