Marriage Matters Jackson Winter Workshop Getaway at New Holiday Inn

Holiday Gift Certificates Available for all 2011 MMJ Workshops and Events

JACKSON, Mich.--Marriage Matters Jackson wants couples to get away and enjoy a night together this winter, without ever having to leave town. Marriage Links workshop is planned for Friday evening, Jan. 14 and Saturday, Jan. 15 at the Holiday Inn in Jackson. Special note: Gift certificates are available for all 2011 MMJ events and workshops and make a great holiday gift.

For only $75, couples will enjoy an overnight stay at the new Holiday Inn in Jackson and a relaxing and enriching marriage workshop aimed to bring them closer together. The workshop begins at 7 p.m. Friday night (check in is at 3 p.m., with dinner on your own). Saturday the workshop runs from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and includes a continental breakfast and lunch.

“We know how important it is for couples to spend time together and an overnight workshop at a beautiful hotel will make it even more special,” explains Shelby Raines, managing director of Marriage Matters Jackson. “We have underwritten a good share of the cost because we know it is critical for people to invest in their marriage and enjoy each other. When marriages are healthy and happy our whole community does better.”

Space is limited for the discounted hotel rate and overnight workshop; register online, or call (517) 796-5116. For more details and for a list of other MMJ workshops planned this year, visit MarriageMattersJackson.com.

Marriage Matters Jackson is supported local Jackson individuals and organizations. The vision of Marriage Matters Jackson is to promote, prepare, and preserve healthy marriages.
