

Healthy Marriages are Good for Business

Employees with healthy marriages create a workforce with:

- Increased productivity
- Reduced absenteeism
- Stronger communication skills
- Lower healthcare costs
- Loyal and stable employees.

Relationship workshops build communication skills, which work at home and on the job.

Marriage and Divorce affect company success.

PROFIT

Employees with healthy marriages
create a workforce with:

- Increased productivity
- Reduced absenteeism
- Stronger communication skills
- Lower healthcare costs.

LOSS

*Failing relationships cost money. The average worker going through a divorce
will spend:*

- 84 hours of company time discussing
the divorce
- 292 hours underperforming
- 16 days absent for court dates and related stress
- Nearly 30 hours of his/her supervisor's time dealing with declining performance.

Healthy marriages lead to greater profits. It makes sense for businesses to invest in marriage.
